The Dark Side of Love

AU STOP THE TRAFFIK, Politics and IR and Anthropology Society

New Kings 10, 6pm-8pm

Inviting 2013's year's Emmy Award Winner Deeyah Khan for Best Documentary. We will broadcast her winning documentary about an Honour Killing of a British-Kurdish woman named Banaz, and the documentary is called "Banaz: A Love Story". This event is about inviting Deeyah and have her hold a speech about her work with the documentary and Q&A's.

Wine & Cheese Matching

AU Wine Society

Societies Room, 6pm-9pm

We've all had wine with cheese but have you tried unusual combinations such goat cheese with Sauvignon Blanc or cheddar with Cabernet Sauvignon?

Fairtrade Fortnight Pecha Kucha

Sustainable Futures

Linklater Rooms, 6.30pm-8.30pm

Students from the University of Aberdeen will be presenting. Inspired by the theme of 'Fairtrade', see what students from the University of Aberdeen are passionate about as they take on this fast paced, dynamic presentation style that originated in Japan. Wine and nibbles reception provided.

Monologue Hour

Creative Writing Society

Butchart Gallery, 8pm-9pm

The Creative Writing Society would like to invite you to join us to hear readings of short monologues and poems. Members of our society will be sharing their own work and work which has inspired them. If you would like to read then please contact us via our Facebook page or email address: au.creative.writing@gmail.com. We hope to see you there!

Student Insights into Global Health and Development

Medsin Aberdeen

Lecture Theatre, Suttie Centre, Foresterhill, 5.30pm-7.30pm

As part of International Development Week, Medsin Aberdeen and the Centre For Sustainable International Development proudly present an evening of presentations on Global Health and Development. There will be a mix of short presentations and student-made films which cover various interesting topics such as HIV in adolescent girls, Neglected tropical diseases in women, Schistosomiasis in children, Female Genital Mutilation (FGM), Girls' Education and many more. Refreshments will be available in the Suttie Centre Atrium from 5.30pm, hope to see you there!

Europe under Attack? Charlie Hebdo & Pluralist Islam

Yad'am Student Association

New King's, 7.30pm - 9pm

After an introductory talk by a member of the Politics and IR department (TBD), participants are invited to a QA session and open discussion on Islam and its treatment of issues such as political pluralism, civil society, war and peace in Muslim societies. Especially in light of the events in Paris last month, this event offers a chance for students and university staff to exchange perspectives on some of the most pressing questions of our time. Are democracy and its institutions indeed antithetical to Islam or are Muslim teachings and democratic values reconcilable?
